PEREGRINE

1966

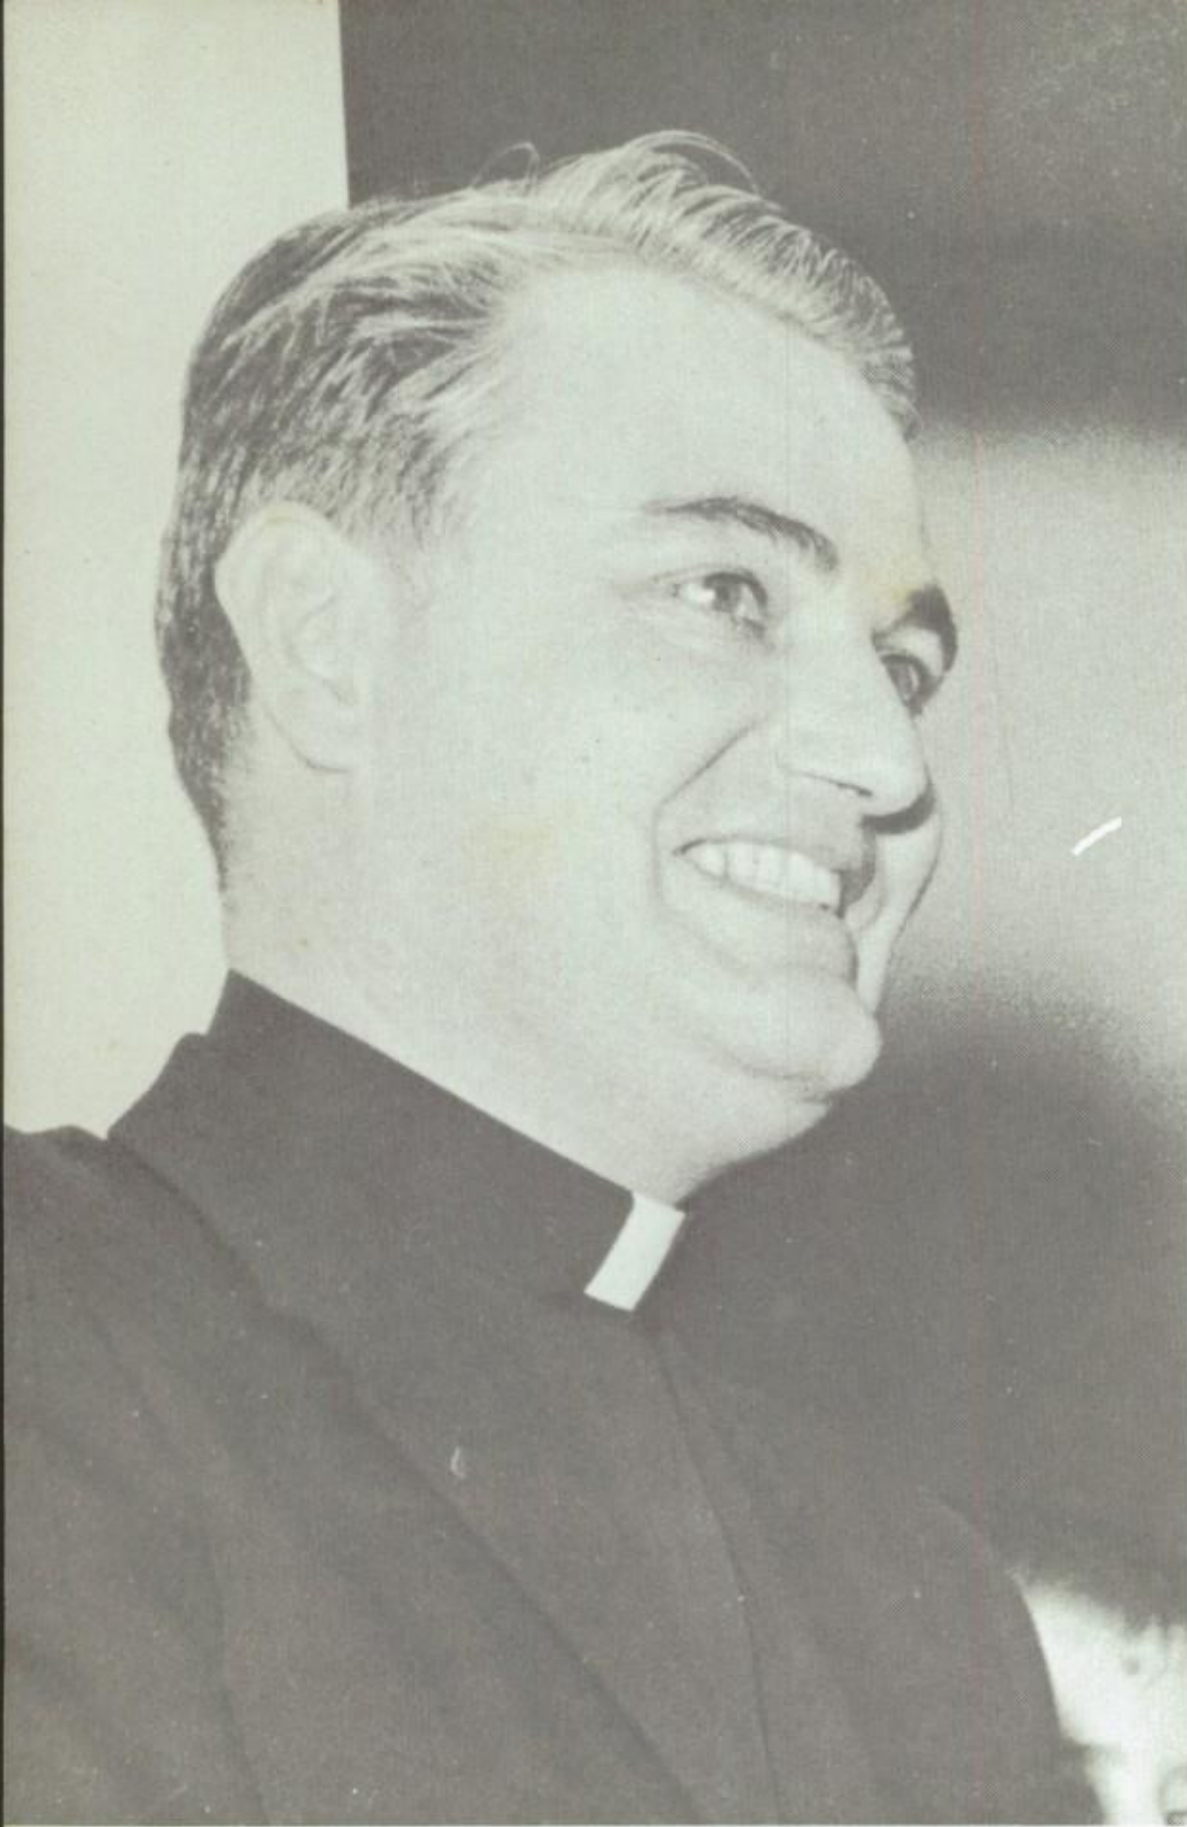

Haec studia adolescentiam acunt, senectutem oblectant, secundas
res ornant, adversis perfugium ac solacium praebent, delectant domi, non impediunt foris, pernoctant nobiscum, peregrinantur, rusticantur.

CICERO Pro Archia

Father Wood, Headmaster

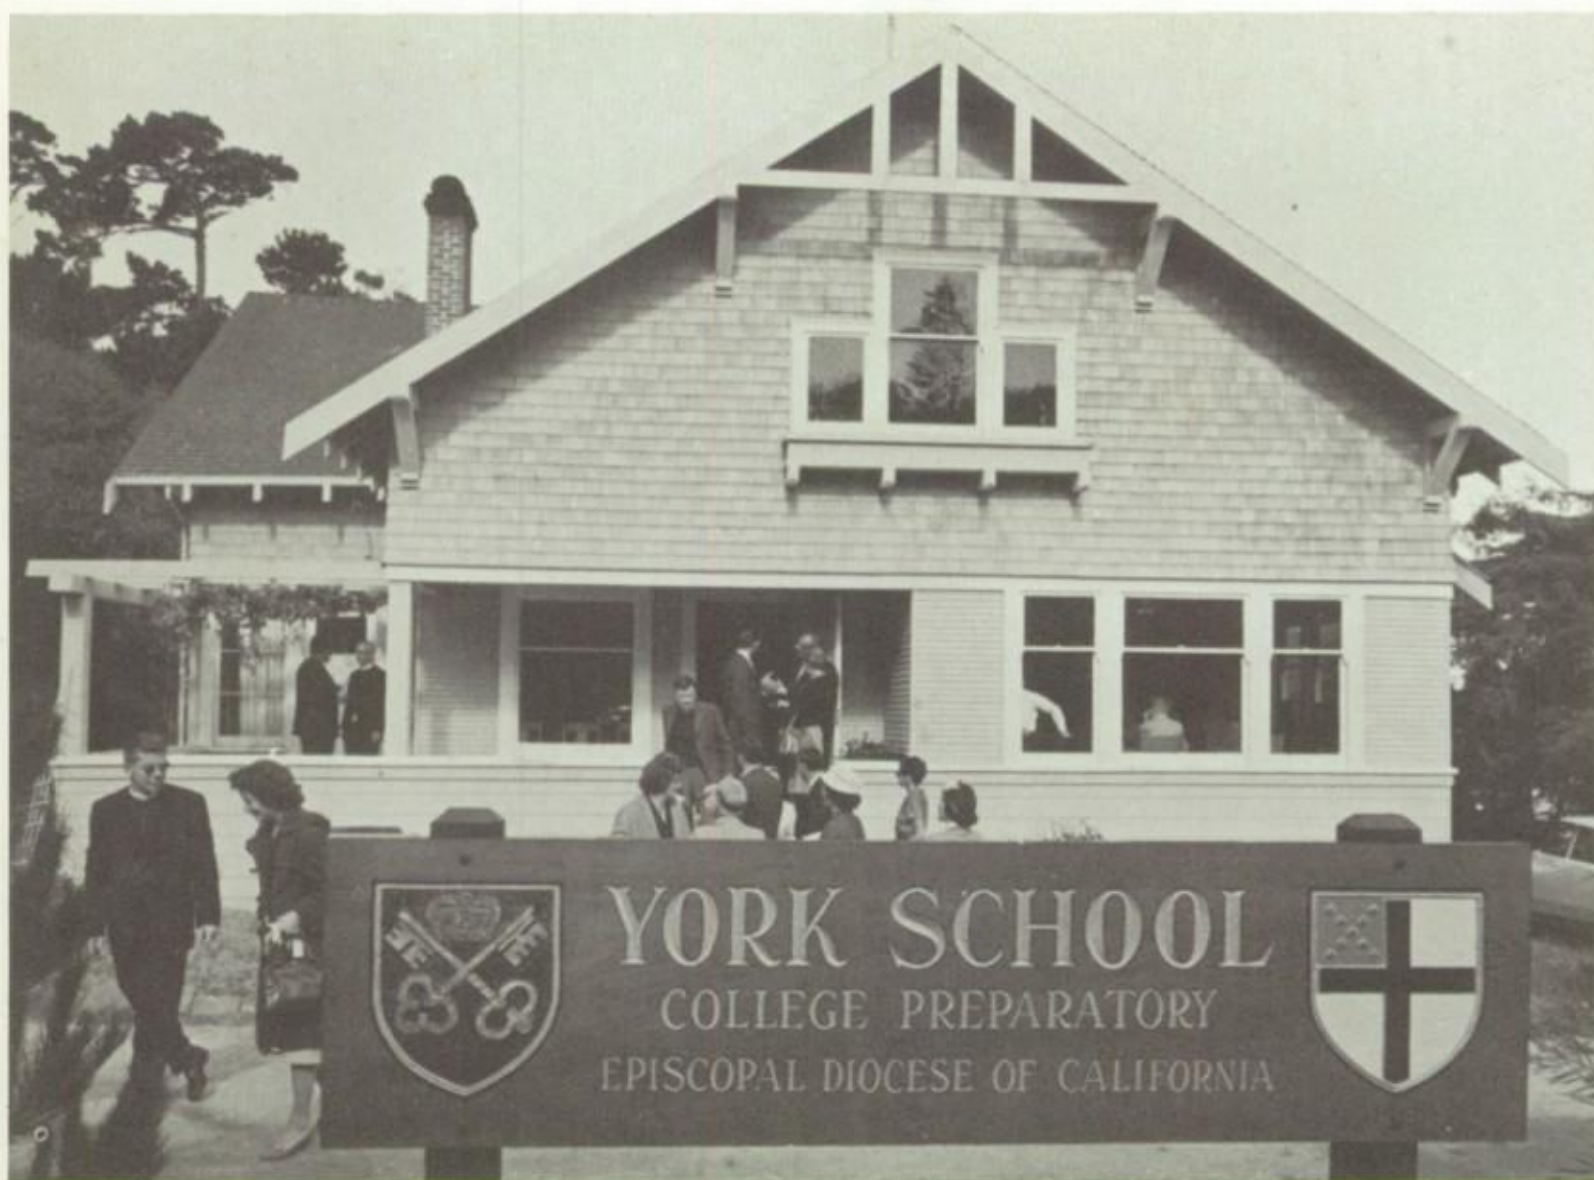

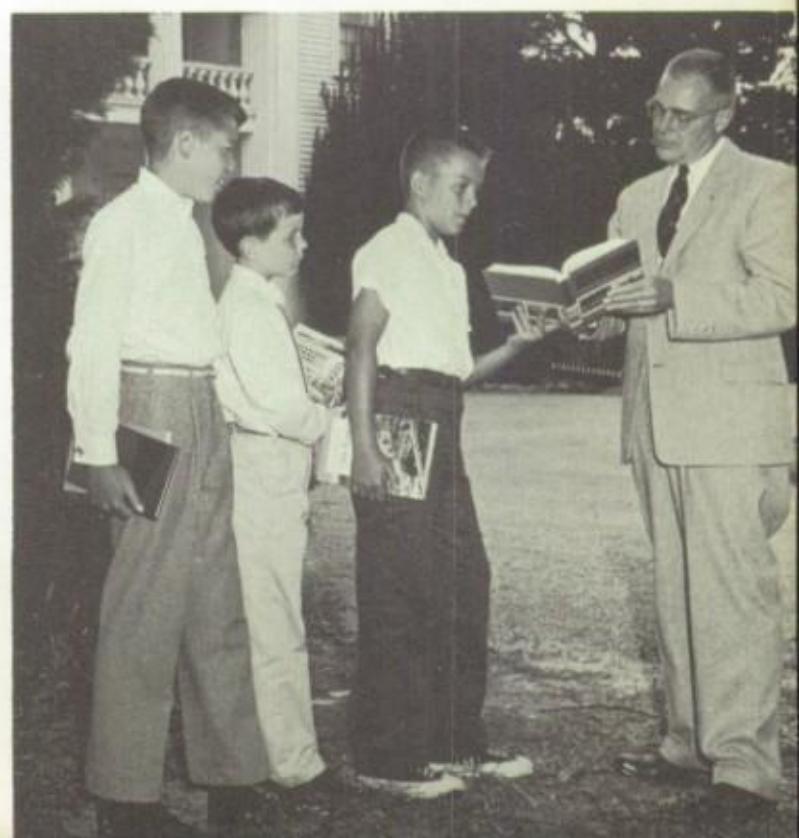

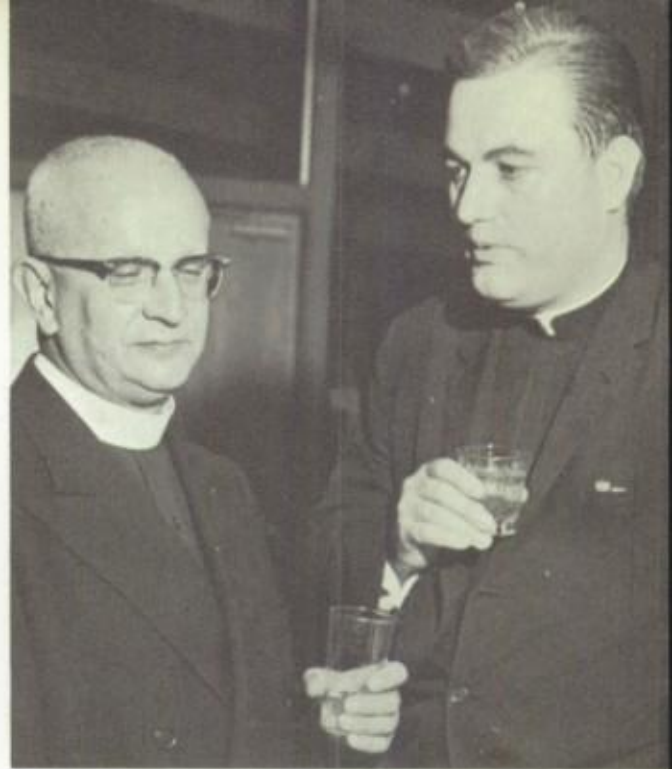

Father Morse

These studies are an impetus to youth, and a delight to age; they are an adornment to good fortune, refuge and relief in trouble; they enrich private and do not hamper public life; they are with us by night, they are with us on long journeys, they are with us in the depths of the country.

*Oh the fishes will laugh
As they swim out of the path
And the seagulls they'll be smiling . . .*

*And the rocks on the sand
Will proudly stand
The hour that the ship comes in.*

*Then the sands will roll
Out a carpet of gold
For your weary toes to be touchin' . . .*

*And the ship's wise men
Will remind you once again
That the whole wide world is watchin'.*
